

TP10

Problem 2. What was the meaning of the second number on the stack?

Answer: The second number on the stack is the function's return address.